

MUTUAL NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Non-Disclosure Agreement ('Agreement') is entered into as of January 15, 2026, by and between AlphaTech Innovations Inc. ('Disclosing Party') and Johnathan Doe ('Receiving Party').

1. Purpose & Scope

The parties wish to explore a business relationship concerning software engineering and architectural consulting. In the course of discussions, proprietary data will be disclosed.

2. Confidential Information Defined

'Confidential Information' includes all non-public technical, financial, commercial, customer, software code, trade secrets, and business information disclosed directly or indirectly in writing or orally.

3. Non-Disclosure Obligations

The Receiving Party agrees to exercise reasonable care (at least standard of care for own secrets), not disclose Confidential Information to any third party without prior written consent, and restrict access exclusively to employees with a direct need to know.

4. Exclusions from Confidentiality

Confidential Information does not include information that: (a) is or becomes publicly known through no breach; (b) was already known prior to disclosure; (c) is independently developed without reference to disclosed information; or (d) is required to be disclosed by judicial order.

5. Term & Survival

This Agreement remains in effect for twelve (12) months from the Effective Date. The non-disclosure obligations shall survive expiration or termination for a period of two (2) years thereafter.

6. Return or Destruction of Materials

Within fourteen (14) days upon written request or termination of talks, Receiving Party shall return or securely destroy all copies of Confidential Information.

7. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to conflict of laws principles.
